AIFUCTO PRESS RELEASE:

Patna,30.07.2020

Imposition of New Education policy will not be tolerated and AIFUCTO will oppose it.

When the entire country is struggling to save the lives of the mankind and economic backbone of the country is in serious bad shape, Central Government considered it as a opportunities to implement its ideology on the entire nation. The National Education Policy (NEP) is not the reflection of collective consensus of the nation nor it exhibits the democratic views of all stakeholders including AIFUCTO. The claim of the Government that before finalizing the policy wide range consultation have been made is merely eyewash and pretensions. Only persons with ideological affinity with them have been consulted. Reason best known to the Government, they didn't have the patience for approval in the parliament.

Keeping with their unbridled spree for privatisation of key public sectors, the present NEP will private the entire system, providing a death knell to AIFUCTO struggle for a democratic, secular, scientific and inclusive education. Market, Corporate and fundamentalist forces will take advantage of the situation and demolish the constitutional foundation of our Education system. Democratic right of the Teachers and the autonomy of the institution will collapse like a house of cards. The emphasis on online system of teaching and examination will open the system to commercialisation and deprive vast majority of the students from the benefits of knowledge revolution of 21st century. The communal over tone of the policy will rob from the students mind the scientific temper and make them victim of emotional frenzy.

The structurally changes made in the policy is mere cosmetic and nothing to with quality education. The phasing out of the affiliating system, provision for multi disciplinary institution and design to change curriculum will have a disastrous impact on the fate of the Teachers and our pluralistic cultural diversity. There is no concrete road map for resource mobilization. That means entire NEP is meant to consolidate the forces of centralisation, communalisation, corporatisation, and commercialisation.

AIFUCTO to save Our Nation, Education and Campus strongly rejects the NEP and appeals to all democratic, progressive , patriot citizens of India to oppose the and people,anti students and anti Teachers policies inherent in the New Education policy.An ,united struggle of all rational forces is the urgent necessity of the hour to preserve, Protect, defend and consolidate our dreams of a democratic secular scientific and inclusive education.
