

PLACES OF TOURIST INTEREST

Khandagiri Caves- 7km away from venue, Khandagiri Caves are artificial caves located in Bhubaneswar which date back to 2nd century. This place is quite a sight to see with all the beautifully carved inscriptions and figures. This place holds a great historical significance.

Lingaraj Temple- Lingaraj Temple is located within a spacious compound wall of laterite measuring 520 ft by 465 ft. Biggest of all temples in the city, it is devoted to the Hindu god Hanuara. Representing the quintessence of the Kalinga type of architecture, the temple rises to a height of about 180 ft. Linga or 'Lingam', which is the symbol of Lord Shiva is worshipped by the devotees visiting the temple.

Dhauli Shanti Stupa- Dhauli is a small town 8 Km away south of Bhubaneswar, located on the bank of river Daya and holds great significance for the followers of Lord Buddha.

Puri- This city 60km from Bhubaneswar one of the four must-visit pilgrimage sites, Puri is a beach city with its most famous attraction as the Jagannath temple.

Konark- Konark or Sun Temple 60km from Bhubaneswar is a UNESCO world heritage. This is a heritage built in the shape of a chariot with wheels and horses. The beauty of sculptures is still worth watching.

Nandankanan Zoological Park- The zoo 12 km from venue is located in the Chandaka Forest, on the banks of the Kanjika Lake. Black panthers, gharial crocodiles and white tigers are some of the wildlife that exist in the zoo. The zoo is home to over 67 kinds of mammals, 18 varieties of reptiles and 81 species of birds that co-exist in the deeply forested boundaries. White tiger breeding also takes place at the zoo.

Chilika Lake- Chilika 90km from Bhubaneswar is another great destination to visit. This lake is Asia's largest salt water lagoon. Situated near the Bay of Bengal, this lake is separated from the sea by only a small neck like piece of land. This is a favorite migratory spot for a numerous birds during winter. Dolphin Point at Chilika is one of the famous attractions.

Bhitarkanika- Bhitarkanika National Park situated in the eastern part of India is famous for the rare salt water crocodiles. A boat ride in the narrow manmade canal through the national park is a lifetime thrilling experience. Excluding crocodiles this park also houses several types of flora and fauna which includes spotted deer, domestic and migratory birds, several types of snakes and reptiles. One can also visit the nearby Gahirmatha marine sanctuary adjacent to this national park to see the largest nesting ground of Olive ridley sea turtles.

INVITATION

Dear Friends/Colleagues,
 Warm Greetings..!!

We are cordially inviting you all to the XXX Statutory Conference of All India Federation of University & College Teachers' Organizations (AIFUCTO) organized by All Odisha Non-Govt. College Teachers' Association & supported by All Odisha Federation of Teachers' Organisations, Govt. College Teachers, All Odisha Non Govt. College Demonstrators' Association in Bhubaneswar (Odisha) from 7th-9th Dec. 2019.

AIFUCTO conference is significant not only in the history of the organisation but also for the higher education in the country. AIFUCTO has been fighting for the interest of the teachers as well as for an inclusive, secular, scientific & public funded education system in the country.

As you are all aware, the AIFUCTO conference offers a forum to its members, to discuss, deliberate and debate the key issues concerning educational and related fields in the Indian as well as in the global contexts. Keeping in view the role AIFUCTO has been playing over the years, this statutory conference sets for itself the objective of arriving at pragmatic resolutions with regards to the future roadmap of higher education in India.

The theme of the conference is "Towards the goal of inclusive secular, scientific public funded education in India".

We hope the delegates will contribute immensely to make this statutory conference a historic one.

Prof. D. K. Nayak Chairman
Prof. A. K. Mohapatra Coordinator & Treasurer
Prof. U. K. Patra Organizing Secretary
